We've compiled leads for 30 years, and these individuals are ready to promote new programs both online and offline. Our Flex-Leads, generated from recent advertising and our long-standing reputation. Our leads are only days old. They typically promote 3 or 4 offers and are eager for the next opportunity.

Our leads are provided on peel-and-stick labels at a rate of $20.00 for 100 Flex Leads. Statistically, the most effective method for evaluating lead quality is through a test mailing: send out 100 pieces of mail, and recipients may respond with their own offers or express interest in your business opportunity. If you do not receive any responses, it generally indicates that the list is not effective. This assessment is based on extensive experience.
